Mrs. Stacy's Reception.

One of the most elegant receptions of the post-Easter season was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Eugene Stacy, of No. 1826 West Grace Street.

Mrs. Stacy's home was very beautiful with profuse decorations of spring flowers, lilacs, daffodils, violets, roses and white lilacs. In the hall the mantel was banked with ferns and daffodils. The table in the dining-room was particularly pretty. Russian lace over cream silk was used. In the center a tall vase of American Beauty roses was surrounded by a mound of roses and lilacs of the valley. Silver candelabra, with white shades, and silver bonbon dishes filled with confections completed a beautiful arrangement.

MISSIE'S FOUR-ORDED GATHERED SKIRT.

With or without Flounce.

Paris Pattern No. 1880.

The gathered skirt is unquestionably the thing, and this new idea which has the ruffle cut in points and gathered to fit the upper portion is a very beautiful development of the old familiar form. In forward or pongee it would be a pretty style for a young girl's frock.

The pattern is in 8 sizes—13 to 17 years. For a miss of 15 years, the skirt with goes out away beneath flounce requires 8 1/2 yards of goods 20 inches wide, or 4 1/2 yards 36 inches wide, or 4 1/2 yards 42 inches wide, or 2 1/2 yards 54 inches wide. The skirt without flounce needs 6 1/2 yards 20 inches wide, or 3 1/2 yards 36 inches wide, or 2 1/2 yards 42 inches wide.

Price of pattern, 10 cents.

All Sizes Allowed.

In ordering patterns be careful to give the correct number and address.

Of Interest Here.

The Cincinnati Times-Star of recent date contains the following notice, which will prove of interest to friends of Mrs. Potts and Miss Marie Potts in this city:

A double interest will distinguish the marriage of Mrs. Potts and Miss Marie Potts, which will also mark the wedding of the groom's sister, Miss Marie Potts, to Mr. John Taylor, of this city.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. J. D. Potts, who holds one of the highest positions in the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway and is looked upon as one of the exceptionally brilliant men in the railroad world. Her mother, Mrs. Potts, is a graceful, delightful Southern woman, who, although her daughter is very young, would more easily pass for her sister than her mother. The engagement, which has been tacitly admitted all winter, will be formally announced after the marriage ceremony to-morrow, when the wedding guests will assemble at the Hubbert home.

Sterling—Gilmour.

The marriage of Miss Elsie Gilmour, daughter of Mr. J. C. Gilmour, to Mr. William Henry Sterling, Jr., took place quietly in the bride's home, No. 8 North Laurel Street, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour, brother of the bride, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Dr. Russell Cecil, of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The house was prettily decorated in green and white, palms, ferns, smilax and white spring flowers being tastefully arranged in the parlors. Miss Mary Willie Smoot had charge of the music.

Miss Lois Sterling, sister of the groom, and Miss Bertha Gilmour, sister of the bride, were maids of honor and wore dainty costumes of white Korean silk. Their bouquets were of white sweet peas and ferns. Mr. John B. Taylor, of Norfolk, was best man. Little Misses Kathleen Rogers, Eleanor Sydnor, Byrd Sydnor and Margaret Brown held the ribbons and wore pretty white frocks.

The bride wore with her father. She wore a beautiful robe of princess lace over chiffon and silk. Her veil was caught with a diamond sunburst, the groom's gift, and she carried a shower of bride roses.

Andrews was shortly afterwards taken in charge by the police. Mr. Bryan said in the afternoon that he would not prosecute the charge against the man.

Mrs. Woodbridge Here.

Mrs. Woodbridge returned missionary from China, the guest of Mrs. Henry Cannon while in the city, will be present at the meeting of the Ladies' Benevolent Society to-morrow afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. All the ladies of the congregation are most cordially invited to meet her.

Communion Service.

Sunday being the spring communion Sabbath at Grace Street Presbyterian Church, there will be preparatory services this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the lecture-room of the church. Rev. Dr. Jero Witherspoon, the pastor, will deliver an appropriate address.

Condition Unchanged.

The condition of Mr. P. H. Chasid, who is ill at the Memorial Hospital, is unchanged. Mr. Chasid's near relatives have been summoned to his bedside.

one of the most delightful meetings of the season with Mrs. E. A. Shepherd, at Dumbarton, Wednesday afternoon. Four tables were engaged, and the score east and west was made by Mrs. Irving Watkins and Mrs. H. K. Franklin. Score north and south resulted in a tie between Mrs. D. T. Williams and Mrs. Shepherd, playing against Mrs. H. H. Smith and Mrs. Arthur Cannon.

The club will meet next week with Mrs. David T. Williams, at No. 210 East Franklin Street.

Kaleidoscope To-Day.

A varied and attractive program will be presented for the amusement of the guests who attend the entertainment which has been named the "Kaleidoscope," and which will be given this evening in the parish-house of All Saints' Church, under the auspices of the Junior Auxiliary.

Miss Lily West will represent Mrs. Kodak, who is much interested in displaying the portraits in her family album. Miss Sherrard Wilcox will entertain the audience with monologues, and Mr. Lane Lacy will make a humorous address.

The services of Mrs. Stanley, the well-known pianist, have been secured, and while she is depicting the future, Misses Elizabeth Selden and Elise Moncreau will cut silhouettes of the subject's present state.

A bevy of Japanese girls will make the Tea Club Inn an attractive spot, and other members of the auxiliary, in dainty caps and aprons, will serve ice cream and home-made candy.

To Give Egg Hunt.

The Easter egg hunt to be given by the Junior Auxiliary of St. Paul's Church will take place to-morrow at noon, in the Glinter lot, on West Franklin Street. A number of young ladies will be in charge, and the little people are promised a good time.

Emma Andrews Club.

The Emma Andrews Whist Club will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. S. W. Travers, No. 602 West Franklin Street.

Donnybrook Fair.

The Donnybrook Fair, which will be held at No. 908 Floyd Avenue, this evening, for the benefit of the repair fund of Park Place Church, promises to be one of the most unique entertainments of the season. Among those who will contribute to the evening's program are Mr. and Mrs. Clowes, Miss Eicher, Miss Ellington, Mr. Fook, and others. A great deal of interest is being manifested in the vegetable revel, in which the children are artistically costumed as Irish potatoes and cabbages.

In Honor of Miss Woolford.

Mr. W. A. Woolford entertained at dinner in honor of his sister, Miss Neva Woolford, of Baltimore, at Lake-side Club, on Monday evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. A.
